Party Government.

Hitherto there has been a Party of Progress and a Stupid Party in this country. Every attempt that has been made by the former has met with resistance from the latter. There was a Stupid party in 1858 that prohibited men from running vessels to the Fraser and prevented them from carrying merchandize into the country for sale. But opposition of the Party of Progress soon broke down the illegal barriers and secured free commercial intercourse with the Mainland. In 1858 the Crown Lands could only be had by purchase at $5 per acre, but by dint of popular resistance the price of land was reduced to $1 per acre, and the right to pre-empt guaranteed to all British subjects. If that victory had not been attained over stupidity, in all probability there would not have been a Comox or a Cowichan settlement on this Island or a pre-emptor on the valley of the Fraser, or throughout the interior to-day. The roads too, of the Mainland of which so many boast now, would never have been built to open up the country had it not been that the infamous mule tax was execrated by the Progressive portion of the country, who insisted that $500,000 should be borrowed at once to construct roads, instead of pack trails for which five dollars was charged to each mule to pack their way over them. There never would have been a Bankruptcy law in the country or any restraint put on the law for imprisonment for debt had it not been for the Progressive party. Year after year of agitation was spent to get a lawyer put on the Supreme bench, before it was accomplished. The incorporation of Victoria was opposed by the fossils. The Union of the two colonies, too, took years of labor to bring it about, owing to the resistance of the Stupid party. Confederation, that is to-day so popular, was denounced and opposed by the same parties till it was useless any longer to resist. Responsible Government has been held up as hateful, as corrupt, and as dangerous; and even to-day some of the old opponents of progress still oppose it for fear that the people will get possession of the Government and mould it to suit their wishes, and thus exclude the Stupids from power. Even a free constitution, a representative Legislature, has been resisted We need not occupy more space to prove that the people are not indebted to the Stupid party and its adherents for any one good measure, without exception, during the last thirteen years. Such being the case, let the people not be deluded in the future. Let them prepare themselves to support the Party of Progress. Let them oppose those who have usually ranged themselves as Obstructionists in the ranks of the Stupid party. Let the people organize in every part of the colony to return party men, and Liberals at that; for already the Rump of the old Obstructives are organizing to take possession of the Government, if they can delude the free and independent electors between now and the next election into the belief that their party can best serve them. In every town and district throughout the colony, let there be but one purpose, and that to carry on the Government by party, the same as it is in England, and in the Eastern Provinces. We want and must have a Government party and an Opposition. Let the Liberals form the Government and the Stupids the Opposition. Any attempt to elect what are usually called independent members should be frowned down. Every member returned to the Legislature ought to be independent, but at the same time he should be elected to support the Liberals or the Obstructives. In spite of all that will or can be said, the country for the future must and will be governed by party. There can be no half-and-half party, and no such party can govern the country successfully. Any attempt to govern the country by a no-party will hereafter prove a failure. Let, therefore, the friends of Progress, the Liberal party, the People's party, take measures to ensure the return of a majority, and a large working majority, to the next Legislature. The first thing to be done is to REGISTER every LIBERAL VOTE. The next thing is not to pledge a vote to any candidate, no matter who, unless he will pledge himself to support the Liberal party throughout the colony. If these two suggestions be attended to, party government, which is Responsible Government, may be inaugurated by a strong Liberal party, and be worked out successfully in the interest of the country.

THE TROUBLE IN FRANCE.—The manufactories of France having been, to a great extent, destroyed by the late war, and in the present demoralized state of the country, much difficulty being experienced in obtaining first-class French silk goods, they are consequently rapidly rising in price. A large purchase was, however, made by Messrs. J. P. Tunstall & Co., of London, previous to the late rise; they are from the celebrated factory of C. J. Bonnet & Cie., of Lyons, the very best makers in France, whose name is considered, both in Europe and America, a guarantee for extra quality. This fine lot of goods arrived at London House, ex steamer Pacific. *

A. GILMORE, Merchant Tailor, has removed his place of business to the store adjoining the Colonial Hotel, Government street, four doors from Yates street, where he is prepared to sell, at reduced rates, Custom Made Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods. Also, Garments made to order, according to the Latest Styles. *

☞ Memory presides over the past. Fell's Coffee over the present. The first lives in a rich temple hung with glorious trophies, and lined with tombs, but Fell's Coffee has but one thrine and that is every breakfast table. Its aroma walks the earth like a spirit and can be found for sale at every respectable dealers in British Columbia. Beware of spurious imitations. 1y *

Supreme Court.

(Before Chief Justice Begbie.)

FRIDAY, May 19, 1871.

Thomas Rabson vs. John T. Howard—Suit for $5000 damages.

The following gentlemen were sworn as jurors to try the case: J. Moss (foreman), W. Newbury, F. S. Bushell, T. Storey, P. McTiernan, R. Green, R. Laing, G. J. Taylor, W. Miles, R. Todd, J. Longhurst, and W. J. Jeffree.

This was an action brought by the plaintiff for damages for false imprisonment and for malicious prosecution.

It appeared by the evidence for the plaintiff, that the defendant caused the plaintiff to be given into custody of a police officer, on a charge of stealing a saw, the property of the defendant. The plaintiff appeared on the charge, before the Police Magistrate, and the case was dismissed. Afterwards, on the 20th February, the defendant caused a summons to issue from the Police Court for the said charge of stealing a saw, and the said charge was dismissed by the Police Magistrate, whereupon the plaintiff sued the defendant in the Supreme Court for damages as above. Mr Rabson, Mrs. Rabson, Emma Rabson, and Sidney Rabson were called for the plaintiff, who testified as to how Rabson came into possession of the saw.

The defendant called twelve witnesses, who contradicted the plaintiff and his witnesses in almost every fact.

The Judge charged the jury that if they believed the plaintiff and his witnesses, they should give a verdict for the plaintiff for the damages alleged he had received, to wit, the costs of his defence in the Police Court, and damages for his being arrested and accused of felony; that if the jury did not believe Rabson, and did believe the defendant and his witnesses, or that there was probable cause for the defendant thinking that the saw was stolen by Rabson, a verdict should be for the defendant.

Mr. Robertson, instructed by Mr. Courtney, appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. McCreight, instructed by Mr. Bishop, for the defendant.

The case occupied the whole of the day, and created considerable interest. At seven o'clock the jury retired, and were locked up until after eight p.m.

A verdict was given for the defendant.

His Honor then dismissed the jurors until 11 a.m. on Monday, remarking that as Saturday was a busy day, they might take a whole holiday.

SCOTTISH PRIDE.—The prevalence of the feeling with regard to the lineage of the bridegroom, the Marquis of Lorn, and the public services and honors and wealth of the members of the clan Campbell among the people of Scotland has been happily expressed in a dialogue which is reported as having occurred between two humble Gaels, one of whom has just returned from the northern fisheries, and says to his friend, "Hoo's a' wi' you, Donal'? Hae ye ony news yonder?" "Ne-oo, aye—they were sayin' Mac Cullum Mohr' son's goin' to get marri't!" "Ay! ay! An' wha's he goin' to get marri't to?" "Ye ken the Queen—e-ch? Weel, it's to her young dohter he's goin' to get marri't." "E-ch! The Queen mun be the prood woman!"

The cable telegram reporter in London has deemed an absurd statement about Prince Bismarck of sufficient importance to send across the Atlantic. It is to the effect that the Prussian statesman, ambitious of still further extending the boundaries of Vaterland, has been demanding the cantons in Switzerland inhabited by German-speaking people; the spirited little Republic of course refused, and is now actively engaged in defensive military preparations. It is hardly necessary to discuss the extreme improbability of Bismarck adopting any such outrageous proceeding.

SAILING OF STEAMSHIPS.—The City of Melbourne is advertised to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu, Fiji, Auckland, Sydney and Melbourne, on the 20th June, as the pioneer of the new English line, in opposition to the Webb-Holladay line. The steamer California is advertised to leave Portland for Sitka and Puget Sound to-day. The steamer Constantine will sail to-day for Portland. The steamer Prince Alfred sailed yesterday for Victoria. Both vessels from San Francisco.

BOAT RACE.—A double skull match for $50 a side, has been arranged by four young men of this city, to be rowed in the outriggers Tyne and Fairy. It will come off in about ten days. The course will be from the dredger round Dead Man's Island and back.

FOR THE MAINLAND.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, left for New Westminster yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, with a large freight and about 30 passengers. She will return this afternoon with a Cariboo mail and express.

THE FORTHCOMING CONCERT.—Over four hundred tickets have been sold for the concert in aid of the orphans in charge of the Sisters of St. Ann's. The Committee, and young ladies who assist in disposing of the tickets are working diligently.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY STANDARD.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe.

VERSAILLES, May 18—Members on the Right in the Assembly desire to depose Thiers. They offered the succession first to Grevy, and then to McMahon. They both declined. Changarnier was subsequently chosen, and is now deliberating upon the proposition.

PARIS, May 18.—Marshal McMahon has called upon the German army to aid him. German engineers are now throwing a bridge over the Seine, to facilitate the passage of the German and Versailles armies.

A decisive attack will come from the East, and the Germans and French will act together.

VERSAILLES, May 18—Evening—The Assembly has adopted the entire Treaty signed at Frankfort between France and Germany.

General Chanzy objected to the proposed territorial exchange, but was answered by Thiers and General Ducrot, who insisted upon the advantages of retaining and strengthening Belfort.

LONDON, May 16—In the House of Lords the Army Regulation Bill came up and a lively discussion ensued. The opponents of the measure were violent in denouncing the bill. Cardwell supported the bill. Upon a division of the House there was a majority for the Government of 65.

FLORENCE, May 16—The Italian Deputies have adopted the bill compensating Florence for the transfer of the capital.

NEW YORK, May 18—A special correspondent telegraphed from Paris last night that the police authorities of the Hotel de Ville, with a guard of franc-tireurs, made a descent on Peters' American Restaurant and arrested 150 men and women who were supping luxuriously.

The statement that civil commissioners are to accompany each army of the Commune is confirmed. This is to prevent a military dictatorship which the Commune fears would result in the restoration of Napoleon.

Shells are falling in all parts of the city.

Great fears are manifested by the Communist authorities of a Revolutionary attack upon the Hotel de Ville. The guards round that building have been doubled.

A special from Versailles says: The destruction of the Column Vendome by the Paris Commune has caused great indignation in military circles here. It is considered by the soldiers a direct insult to the army.

A special from Paris says that 600 prisoners were killed by the explosion near Avenue de Trocedero, last night. Most of them were women.

It is supposed that the Germans are about sending an ultimatum to the Commune.

Heavy columns of troops are massed near Passy, where an engagement is hourly expected.

VERSAILLES, May 18—The committee on the treaty of peace propose to the Assembly to exchange territory in the neighbourhood of Metz for that of Belfort.

It is reported that the Versaillists have carried the Western gate.

LONDON, May 18—A dispatch from Berlin last evening says—There was a stormy discussion in the German Parliament to-day on the right, of members to enquire into the actions of the Government. The Liberals were vehement in demanding this right. This is the first conflict between the German Parliament and Government since the Reichstag has been in session. The Southern members are exceedingly suspicious and speak their minds plainly and with energy. The Reichstag sits three weeks.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, May 18—A dispatch has been received from W. H. Husse, General Superintendent of the International Oceanic Telegraph Company, at sea, 5 miles from Key West, Florida, the 18th, which says: I have just laid a heavy cable between Punta Rosa and Key West, in an air line, by American talent exclusively, both electrical and mechanical.

This is the first time a cable was ever laid without foreign assistance.

WASHINGTON, May 18—The President has sent the following nominations to the Senate: Wm. Harrison of Vermont, to be Consul in Canada; James R. Pritchard of Maryland, to be Minister of Brazil; Wm. A. Pile of Missouri, to be Minister at Venezuela; W. Warner of Alabama, to be Governor of New Mexico.

DAYTON, May 18—The Montgomery county Democratic Convention met to-day for the appointing of delegates to the State Convention. A long string of resolutions were submitted by the Vallandingham. The New Platform for the Democratic Party is now proposed, the main feature contained in 2d. and 3rd. resolutions are as follows;—2nd, waving all differences of opinion and extraordinary means by which they were brought about, we accept natural results of the war so far as waged for the ostensible purpose of maintaining the Union, constitutional rights of powers of Federal Goverment—including amendments defacto to the constitution recently declared, adopted as settlement in face of the issue of war, inasmuch as some are no longer issues before the country, burying out of sight all that is of the past, right of secession, slavery, inequality before the law, political inequality complete, Representation within function restored to all States, waiving all questions as a means by which this is accomplished. We demand vital long established rule of strict construction as proclaimed by the Democratic Fathers, accepted by statesmen of all parties previous to the war, and embodied in the tenth amendment to the constitution, be vigorously applied now to the constitution as it is—including the three resolutions and amendments referred to—insist that these amendments shall not be held to have in any respect altered or modified original theory of character of the Federal Government; and to-night by its founders, and repeatedly affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States but only have enlarged powers delegated to it, to that effect and no more; to have abridged the reserved rights of the State and has thus construed according to ancient and well established rules of Democratic principles. It pledges itself to favor execution of the constitution as it is now, so as to protect equal rights of all citizens, without distinction of race, color, or condition; other resolutions favor the general amnesty, early payment of the public debt; civil reform; speedy return to specie payments; opposition to further grants of public lands and to the scheme for annexation of San Domingo; condemning in unqualified terms the Ku-Klux Bill passed last session of Congress as unconstitutional and subversive of the rights of people of the States. Vallandingham supported the resolutions in strong speeches. They were unanimously adopted.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18—The fact that the California Pacific Railroad is to be extended to Oregon is now established beyond doubt.

SUMMER.—A. B. Gray has received per steamer Pacific a large assortment of goods selected for the present season,—comprising, Muslins, Prints, Hollands, Brilliantes, Alpacas; Lace, Barege and Wool Shawls; Silk, Cloth and Holland Jackets; Hats, Flowers, Silk and Cambric Sunshades, Linen, Cottons, Hosiery, Ribbons, Laces, &c.

Why are Colored Men not on Juries.

EDITOR STANDARD:—I would like by your permission to ask why it is that we never see any of our colored population serving on juries, in common with the whites. We all know that the Sheriff must make his selection from the list of voters. We also know that there are a large number of colored men whose names have been on that list for the last ten or twelve years; still we never find them called upon to take their portion of this public labor or work, if you please. I consider every man's time worth something, and when there is any public duty to be performed, it is quite in keeping for every man at least to bear a portion of it.

Now, whose fault is it that colored men are not called on to serve as jurors? Come, come, gentlemen! the election is near at hand now, and it might be well for us all to examine ourselves and see whether it be our high regard for the colored man, and a wish to have him lose no time in serving his country, by going over to James Bay and there answer to his name as many others have to do, or pay the penalty. Or is he passed over simply because he is colored? I am inclined to think that it is the latter. Now, if this be a fact, more to our shame as Englishmen. It has always been a source of wonderment with me, why men should cherish a mean thing like prejudice against their fellowman, on account of color. God knows, we are all mixed up at a fearful rate,; if not by blood, as many of us are, with both the Negro and the Indian, we are in all the business walks of life brought face to face daily. The beauty of this is, we cannot change it. We might as well attempt to get rid of our skin as to get rid of the colored people.

It is hard to understand how it is. Some families will come here from colored governments, where they were on the most intimate terms with those objectionable people, and as soon as they land here they will swear they never saw one before. Some there are who are in debt to colored men to-day for the positions they occupy.

Many have left here and to-day you may no doubt find them under some tropical fruit tree with colored ladies and gentlemen. They move in the same circle, their children go to the same school. There, respectability is made the rule, and not color. It is a most wonderful good quality in a man or woman to be free; and not have the whole course of their lives governed by a corrupt public sentiment. In this little one-horse town of ours, a man or woman is respected according to the length of his or her purse or the color of their skins. Once in a great while, you will find a man who thinks for himself, on matters such as we are now discussing. Take Governor Kennedy for instance. What was his first act when he arrived here? He had the instructions given to him by our most beloved Queen, read in the most public way. What were those instructions? They said that he (Gov. K.) was not to make flesh of one and fish of another. He plainly told us that his business as the representative of our Queen was to seek after the interest of the black as well as the white subject. Now what did Gov. Kennedy do, some one will no doubt ask? Well I will say this much, he did what no one since or before his time has had the pluck and manliness to do.

JUSTICE FOR ALL.

Letter from the Sound.

OLYMPIA, May 16, 1871.

MESSRS. ——:—You no doubt expect a large number of excursionists by the Sound boats on Monday; in that I think you will be mistaken, any more than the usual number of passengers by these boats. The sentiment of the people on this side has materially altered since the last Queen's Birthday Celebration. Here's what they say: "The Victorians return no compliments for our patronage; we will stop at home and spend our money among our own people. Besides, they boast of growing fat on our liberality." Certain it is, the breach of friendship is wider to-day between the Sound folks and Victorians than it was a year ago. Whether it is from your being Canadianized, or from other causes, I am unable to judge. Perhaps, some of your law-making doctors could enlighten us on this "growing evil." There is another and very important cause, which tends to stimulate the present feeling on the part of the Sound-ers, and that is the steamer arrangements. It is well known that Capt. Finch has an utter abhorence for buncombe, and never replies to any assertions made in public journals; from this it is inferred he has few friends on the Sound. This is a most palpable mistake; he still has a great many friends, and those friends have become very indignant at the fish-of-one-and-flesh-of-another policy adopted by the Victorians, in securing privileges for Capt. Starr which Finch was as much entitled to,—for two years' or more services in carrying the mails free. I am sure it was a great mistake in the Victorians making such distinction between Starr and Finch; consequently, Finch's friends don't care much about patronizing Victorian "liberality." There is another large class on the Sound who care nothing about Starr or Finch, or their steamers, so long as there is opposition and accommodations. Of this party a large number would go to Victoria had the arrangements of the Olympia been such that they could return on Thursday. Now, Capt. Finch would like very well to accommodate the Sound people, but, he says, if he does so, the Victorians will derive all the benefit, for which they would not even return thanks. Consequently, he is justified in not laying his steamer over until Thursday, to benefit the people of Victoria. This is principally the reason that the Sound folks won't go over on Monday, there being no accommodation outside of the steamer Olympia. You in Victoria will, no doubt, call Finch all kinds of hard names for doing this, but the truth of the matter is, the people in Victoria have nobody to blame but themselves. If they grant privileges to one and indifference to another, they must expect a return of the same compliment. If the people in Victoria make their boasts about exchanging coldness for the liberality of Sound people, they must expect to be reminded of "adding insult to injury."

MEMPHIS, May 17—Forty masked men entered Pontomine, Mississippi, last Friday night for the purpose of driving off Col. Tourney, editor of a radical paper. They fired on a party of citizens who met them and inquired their purpose, when the citizens returned the fire, wounding one of the maskers, the others fled. The wounded man proved to be a young person who lived near. He persistently refused to divulge the names of his comrades and soon died. Next morning a number of persons were found to have left the country.

A Scandalous Letter from Victoria to a Puget Sound Journal—Piety and Profanity.

EDITOR ECHO.—As a regular reader of the Echo, I have often thought of jotting down a few items for publication, such as you might deem to be of general interest to your numerous readers. Although, politically, the people of British Columbia and those of Washington Territory are divided, and live under entirely different forms of government, yet in very many respects we are one people, having kindred interests, common objects, and mutual sympathies. Boasting a common ancestry, claiming a kindred literature, speaking the same language, governed in many respects by uniform laws, and professing a common christianity, it is but natural we should take an interest in each other's welfare, and bid God-speed to every undertaking having for its object the suppression of vice, in whatever form it may present itself, and the restoration and elevation of our fellow men from the slough of despond into which drunkenness, debauchery, and kindred vices have hailed by few, too many, alike in your country and ours.

I am glad to see that the cause of temperance has taken deep root in your rich and fertile soil, and that the quarterly returns from your various Lodges of Good Templars show so many trophies gained from the ranks of Alcohol's legions. And I am sure that while we rejoice over your many successes in this respect, we may count on your prayers and sympathy in our contest with the common enemy. The friends of temperance here have an up hill task before them, but they are steadily gaining ground, and adding to their numbers such as shall be forever saved from the withering, blighting influences consequent upon an indulgence in the use of ardent spirits as a beverage. You may imagine that it requires more than an ordinary degree of moral courage and faith combined, to enter the lists against Alcohol and those who traffic in it, when I tell you that the rum traffic constitutes one of the main pillars upon which our governmental fabric rests. From the Governor down to the prison turn-key, all have an interest in the sale of intoxicating liquors, inasmuch as the payment of their stipends in a large degree depends upon the number of whisky-mills kept in operation and the revenue derived therefrom. In other words, in order to provide for the temporal (as well as spiritual) necessities of the horde of officials, who cling to the government as tightly as barnacles do to an old ship, and whose aggregate incomes figure up somewhere in the neighborhood of $200,000 per annum, "distilled damnation" is poured out at almost every street corner in town and country, thereby inducing our male population to become drunkards, and aiming a blow at the virtue as well as the sobriety of our females! Is it any wonder that, in the face of such adverse influences, the friends of total abstinence find it an up-hill task to make any headway whatever?

Drunkenness is not only a blighting and withering curse to individuals, but from it the whole body politic suffers. Bad as it is, however, it would be well for British Columbia were that the only sin which poisons our moral atmosphere and stalks with brazen front our streets, luring too many of our young men to ruin and leaving its hideous imprint in indelible marks upon their bodies, visible to all with whom they come in contact, as if written by the finger of Heaven in condemnation of sin, and as a warning to others. I allude to the sin of prostitution, which runs rampant through our streets, utterly unheeded by the authorities, who should be a "terror to evil doers;" and so numerous have fallen women become, white as well as copper-colored, that respectable females dare scarcely venture to walk our thoroughfares of an evening, for fear of being jostled by them into the gutters. In well-regulated communities, where the authorities are imbued with a proper regard for public morality, such a disgraceful state of affairs is not tolerated; but here it is not so. Among the patrons of infamous women and houses of ill-fame, I could name more than one official of high rank, as well as those holding subordinate positions. Even the gubernatorial mansion has not been exempt from the desecrating tread of the courtezan; and if Dame Rumor does not speak falsely, it has, under a former administration, presented frequent scenes of Bacchanalian revelry and commingling of the sexes, that would vie with the lowest brothels in our back streets.

We are on the eve of political changes in this country, which may, and I trust will, lead to the cleansing of the Augean stable. It is now settled beyond a doubt that British Columbia will be incorporated with the Dominion of Canada on the first of July next, when the whole machinery of Government will undergo a change, and the people be allowed a larger share in the direction of public affairs than they were permitted to enjoy under the present dispensation. It is believed the admission of this colony into the Dominion will prove very much to our advantage in many ways, and, while it stimulates enterprise and industry, let us hope it will also deal a heavy blow to the rum traffic and improve the tone of public morals, which at present is as low as rum and the devil can make it.

I see by the local papers that the Rev. Morley Punshon. * * *

I fear I have trespassed too far already on your space, and will close for the present by stating a circumstance concerning our Governor Musgrave, which shows him to be as narrow-minded as a christan as he is said to be liberal as a statesman. It has always been the custom here for the Governor to head the list of subscriptions to the fund of the Wesleyan Missionary Society with a donations becoming the head of the Government and the representative of the Queen; and accordingly a few days ago a couple of ladies waited upon his Excellency for a subscription, never for a moment doubting that he would come down as liberally for so worthy a cause as his predecessors in office had done on former occasions. They were however mistaken, for his Excellency met them with a flat denial, excusing himself on the ground, first, that he could not afford to give anything; and, secondly, that his own church (the Episcopalian) stood much in need of eleemosynary aid, and that anything he had to spare in that way must be given to it. When it is borne in mind, that Governor Musgrave takes from this poverty stricken colony, which is made up of every phase of religious belief, some $25,000 per annum by the way of salary, besides perquisites of one kind and another equal to $5,000 more, such sectarian meanness is really beneath contempt. Did he derive his salary exclusively from Episcopalians, one might excuse such little-souled parsimony; but as all creeds and denominations contribute alike toward his support, all have an equal claim upon him for assistance. He is a liberal patron of the race-course, the ball-room, and theatre, but when it comes to contributing his mite toward sending the Gospel of Christ to the perishing heathen under his own jurisdiction, he has not a dollar to spare! Further comment is unnecessary—the fact speaks for itself.

Victoria, B. C.,

Mexico.

NEW YORK, May 16—A special telegram from Havana gives later news from the Republic of Mexico. The Opposition party elected a new President and Vice-President of Congress, which is considered a great victory. A revolution has broken out in Tampico, and active preparations are being made to suppress it and to secure the commanders of the insurgents, who have embezzled $350,000. They have been surrounded and will probably be caught.

What we Eat.

When we pour milk into a cup of tea or coffee, the albumen of the milk and the tannin of the tea instantly unite and form leather, or minute flakes of the very same compound which is produced in the texture of the tanned hide, and which makes it leather distinguished from the original skin. In the course of a year a tea drinker of average habits will have imbibed leather enough to make a pair of shoes, if it could be put into the proper shape for the purpose.

A great many things go into the mouth. This is not an original remark. We have seen it somewhere. But it is an alarming fact. We drink, every one of us, a pair of boots a year. We carry iron enough in our blood constantly to make a horse shoe. We have clay enough in our frames to make, if properly separated and baked, a dozen good-sized bricks. We eat at least a peck of dirt a month—no, that is not too large an estimate. The man who carelessly tips a glass of lager into his stomach little reflects that he has begun the manufacture of hats. Yet such is the case. The malt of the beer assimilates with the chyle and forms a sort of felt—the very same seen in hat factories. But not being instantly utilized, it is lost. Still further: it is estimated that the bones in every adult person require to be fed with lime enough to make a marble mantel every eight months.

To sum up we have the following astounding aggregate of articles charged to account of physiology, to keep every poor shack on his feet for threescore years and ten:

Men's shoes, 70 years, at 1 pair a year... ...70 pairs.
Horse-shoes, 70 years, at one a month as our arterial system renews its blood every new moon... ... ...840 shoes.
Bricks at 12 per 7 years... ... 120 bricks.
Hats, not less than 14 a year... ... 980 hats.
Mantels at, 1½ a year ... ...105 mantels.

Here we are surprised to observe that we eat as many shoes as we wear, and a sufficient number of hats to supply a large family of boys; that we float in our blood vessels horseshoes enough to keep a span of grays shod all the while; that we carry in our animated clay, bricks enough to build a modern fireplace, and in our bones marble enough to supply all our neighbors with mantels. We have not figured on the soil, at the rate of a peck a month; but it is safe to say that the real estate that a hearty eater masticates and swallows in the course of a long and eventful career, would amount to something worth having, if sold like the corner lots on State-street, at 2,000 dollars a front foot.

DR. CHING FUN—A CARD—EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, next door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit and find relief, Respectfully,

JOHN HENSON, of Kentucky, U. S.
